

22 TAROT MAJOR ARCANAS OILS by Mikael Zayat

Price for a 2ml = $12, 4ml = $17 & 10ml, it varies with the stones

It had to be Mikael Zayat who thought about it!

The major mysteries of the Marseille Tarot are symbolic resonant images called archetypes-related to the life program of an individual. The presence of these images/entities is indispensable in the development of our innermost identity; also, we must activate a code by being aware of where we are in our evolutionary process at any given moment and by creating a relationship with the cards. By selecting a card from the deck, according to your ritual, you can envision the path you must take to accomplish a task.

The tarot is a formidable tool for raising consciousness. It unlocks the yoke of the left brain, the rational hemisphere controlling our every day activities and opens the door to the right hemisphere with all its treasures: intuition, empathy, spouting of new ideas. Comments* by Chantal Giroudon, an esoteric teacher of tarot for 20 years, living in Paris.

You can use 3 drops, 3xday for 3 days while concentrating every day on the card and its meaning.

Here is her text in French for each card: <http://www.4dshift.com/products/html/Tarottexte.doc> .

I tried them, had friends test them. and it seems these oils give new life to the energy of our spiritual work, in a given period of time.

Mikael has created 22 unique essences, one for each card

Each card is related to the spiritual conditions to be worked out at that time. The essential oil will harmonize emotion and thought to do the needed work.

Mikael recommends to follow your intuition. You may try using 1-2 drops twice a day for 11 days. Repeat if you feel it necessary. Or draw another card.

Following are meditation phrases for each of the cards. Chantal suggests that you use words that speak to you in a loud voice while using the oil. She recommends 3 drops/x3/x3 days. Ask the following question: Which energy am I facing to advance in my path? Pick a card. Here are the answers for each card:

CHARIOT VII:

$32

C Tsuga; Petitgrain Comb; Lavendula Vera; Laurel; Yarrow - Herkimer & Palenque stone - deep blue

A couple of oil drops will be very useful in this Chariot's engine also to oil the wheels and give an extra push. Your life wants more, a new project, a promise a coherent direction; part of yourself is already on the way. You need to control the whole cast of the card: the pilot, the chariot, the horses. Who do they represent in your life today? Who directs who? to go where? this is a great time to craft your success. "I coordinate my success"

DEATH XIII:

$24

Sw Orange; Spike Lavender; Scotch Pine; Frankincense; Clove Stones: Amazonite & Apache Tears

Major and true clean up, your rebirth is in gear. All that is not useful, all that has been saved for too long and has no meaning any more, will disappear. The umbilical cord that keep you dependant, are being cut. Accept the loss of your old landmarks, accept that things have an end so that they can start again. "I let go"

DEVIL XV:

$24

Span Marjoram; Rosemary; Cana Tsuga; Angelica; Yarrow
Stones Amber & Obsidian Green

In the middle of a confrontation with powerful beings you should identify your resources, are you sure you own your power? Or are you unknowingly relinquishing it? You must understand the stakes so you can live according to your own desires; there is a fight to liberate yourself of your bondage. "I am the doer in my life, I will honor my hunger to survive"

EMPEROR (IV):

$30

Balsam Fir; White Pine; Niaouli; Peppermint; Vetiver; Herkimer & Tanzanite - royal blue

What important tasks are you undertaking today that will require your inner most strength? To feel more comfortable in your personal throne, make sure that your power is authentic. Do not try to prove it. Meditate on the role of the Father in your line of descendants. Now you are "the Father" right now □ "I take the right place in my life. I recognize the father aspect in me and I place myself to build my life. "I become my own boss."

EMPRESS (III):

$29

White Pine; Laurel ; Neroli ; Goldenrod
Gold & Raspberry Garnet gold color

Good ideas are bursting in your head, in your heart, in your gut at the three levels of your intelligence. The circuit is aligning with the help of many sources of information. This is the time to open communication channels with life itself, express your will to flush clean the pipes in your head and in your heart to liberate the word: first your word then that of others. Language has priority. You can inspire others, renew your friendships, and make new ones.

FOOL (0):

$30

Lavandin Reydovan; Orange; Cinnamon Cassia; Atlas Cedar; Balsam

What is different, maybe a little crazy, in your life, Are you ready to make sudden decisions? To trust the new wind of freedom that blows your way? Like a chess player moving a man on the board, be aware of what is at stake before you start. "I am free and I am inventing a new life that I will fully embrace".

HANGED MAN XII:

$25

Scotch Pine; Ylang Ylang; Labrador Tea
Leopoldite & Moss Agate yellow

You need to stop, a time of suspension, where you stop moving, freeze your projects. You are returning to your mother's womb before you were born and at the same time you are setting forth a re-birth of new values. Everything is disturbed, you look in reverse; it's for your own good; something productive will emerge very soon. Do not move your men on the board. " I turn around to be reborn with a new perception of things".

HERMIT (IX): $31

Black Spruce ; Juniper; Lavendula Vera ; Helicrysum; Labrador Tea
Stones: Labradorite & Black Tourmaline

Look for the card that inspires the relationship between the high master and young disciple. They are all together within the same energy, the energy that is yours at this moment. "I am the disciple and I am the master, what happens to me is caused by the master in me. By accepting this premise I become my own teacher".

HIGH PRIESTESS II: $31

Rosewood; Geranium R; Bulgarian Rose - StoneS: Lapis lazuli & Serpentine

You are conferring with your soul. Focus on your own mirror, close your ears to the worldly sounds, so you can hear the purring tremor of your heart. You are turning a new page in your life: you must feel in perfect harmony with your feminine inner self.

Accept your vulnerability. It is not time for action. Reconnect with yourself. "I accept my vulnerability, I accept the messages of my life's book, I am listening with utmost concentration to my inner self."

JUDGMENT (XX): $29

Lavendin; Ravensara Aromatica; Palmarosa;
Atlas Cedar; Cypress -- Blue Opal Snowflake Obsidian

Trumpets sound the arrival of your new life, are you at the beginning of a metamorphosis? If you answer in the affirmative, you are becoming a different person, moving up to new realms, maybe to a life of recognition. You let go of an identity that no longer fit. LOVERS (VI): $30

Petitgrain; Ylang-Ylang; Goldenrod; Geranium; Neroli
Green Aquamarine & Raspberry Garnet

In this new period in your live you must include your past without repudiation, be aware of your affective- familiar -amicable "clan" and of the new options decided by your inner self. Observe, feel where would you like to sink your hands in right now, how would you like to touch what surrounds you. You must help your choice by following the lure of your hands your spontaneous attractions. "I reconcile with my past, I accept my present, I accept that I am facing choices that will help me grow while they enrich me"

MAGICIAN (I): $32

Black Spruce; Canadian Tsuga; Balsam Fir; White Spruce; Goldenrod; Niaouli ; Cedarwood; Nard

Stones: White Agate - Emerald Rose Quartz

A grace period, we all need it! You are now aligning with the truths of your childhood, you have become a transmitter. All your words will hit target. Heavens are using you to transmit the true message that will change the collective consciousness. You speak the truth. The stars surround you with their protection. It is a blank check for you from the universe. You are dear to forces bigger than yourself. Take advantage of this time of inspiration to bring harmony to your life. STRENGTH (XI) $27

Red Pine; Lavendin Reydovan; White Pine; Spearmint; Goldenrod; Common Tansy; Clary Sage

Stones: Garnet red & raspberry

How much effort it took so far! It is time to think over our action philosophy. Do you think you need to fight every second to gain anything in life? You have to think over this equation. Inner strength -- outer strength. If your strength, your real power comes from your gut, from your survival center, you will need a lot less energy to succeed. You are on the path toward inner-strength. Any fight will do you a disservice. "I master my energy".

SUN (XIX):

$30

White Pine; Jack Pine; Orange; White Spruce, Black Spruce; SJW EO ; Arborvitae (for protection)

Stones: Gold and Quartz crystal

The Sun that shines at noon, that sends its rays so naturally, so generously, is your spirit, expanding its awareness; a wonderful period comes into your life, all dualities are favored. Use life from this core of light, to be creative. Go forward in your work, integrate your dualities, you will have this wonderful sun deep in your heart for a long time. Share with others. "I shine my love"

TEMPERANCE XIV

$28

Petitgrain; Fennel; Angelica; White Pine; Rosemary; Cypress; Goldenrod; Nard; Blue Stones: Chalcedony Citrine

Subtle changes start happening, new threads are being woven around you; inner pacts are being reached. Your inner self is realigning the different levels of perception, much like a tuner of a musical instrument. You have to watch your physical well being, this is a light spiritual rebirth. "I explore, I feel the wave in all levels of my being"

TOWER XVI:

$27

White Pine; Black Spruce; Can Tsuga; Goldenrod; Yarrow - Stones: Emerald & Jade Serpentine

This is a time for initiation. Your conscience opens up to revelations that will turn things upside down. There might be one or more disappointments. Betrayals are in the program. The energies working in your life speak of a somewhat brutal awakening, a project that cannot succeed, tensions that must be integrated in order to be digested and go beyond. Why are you going through this? Might your expectations be too high; your rhythm too fast? If you correct your aim, you will understand what you are risking with this intense lifestyle and you will learn, once and for all, what truly counts for your evolution right now. "I accept my initiation"

WHEEL OF FORTUNE
X:

$30

Taragon, Myrtle, Cistus -- Labradorite & Turquoise

A new cycle is in gear, you grasp life through good initiatives, and you give priority to action. Key words: autonomy, action, confidence, and courage. Keep a light pressure on the steering wheel and new, destiny-changing elements will appear in your path "I set in motion great outcomes"

WORLD (XXI):

$31

Myrtle; Lavendula Vera; Eucalyptus Smithii; Juniper; Geranium; Lime; ArborVitae

Stones: Emerald & White Agate

Now you can think of all the roads you have traveled so far. Are the pieces gracefully falling into place around you? Like in a painting. Are you the main character, magically woven into the design? Do you feel like the hero, heroine, of your own life? This success opens new frontiers, real and figuratively, the world welcomes you with a laurel wreath. Assimilate the success into your own being. "I walk onto the podium to receive my rewards".
